Memo: -

The generations are shown at the upper left-hand corner of each page in Roman numerals.

The father or mother's page is shown after the first name in the caption.

The red numbers in front of the children's names indicate where their families appear;

So that any particular line can be readily traced, either forward or backward; and any new families hereafter inserted will be paged by letters combined with the last preceding numbered sheet, thus: - 22^a, 86^b, &c

Spaces are provided for births, deaths, marriages, husbands or wives; - so that any hereafter ascertained may be easily inserted in proper places, without disturbing any existing data; - & blank spaces show readily what information is yet lacking: Let's get it as complete as is possible.

Genealogically yours,

Le Roy Huron Kelsey

5783 Westminster Place, St. Louis, Mo.

Caution!

In adding names, dates or other information to these pages, please use black or blue-black durable ink; and be sure such data is accurate & authentic, written neatly & legibly.

Also please do not undertake to make erasures or corrections on these sheets; but if errors or discrepancies seem to exist, kindly call attention to same, (giving the page and other identifying information, together with exact changes thought proper, & sources of authority therefor), - on separate sheets, signing your name & address, for checking purposes.

Will be glad to have biographical sketches; family history or traditions; places of birth, marriages, residence or deaths; occupations or professions; - politics & religious preferences; public offices held or military service; obituary notices & other newspaper articles; special experiences & achievements; copies of deeds, wills, tombstone epitaphs, &c.

I	Born	Died	Name	Mrd	Wife or Husband
	mch 9 1712 May 31 1741	1757	Jonathan Mahurin* (Edson) Mary ^ Packard) (II) Ephraim x Levi ? # David ? # Hiram? + John □	July 9 1740 Apr 20 1773	at West Bridgewater Plymouth Co. Mass. & moved to Vermont Benlah Now. Miner

* Jonathan Mehurin was perhaps a brother of Hugh, -
- (History of Bridgewater, by Nahum Mitchell, page 241). -
"His wife was a daughter of Samuel & Mary Edson & widow of George Packard" whom she married in 1728 July 4, 1728.

* Jonathan Mehurin came to Vermont from Bridgewater, Mass. where the family had lived since 1720 & had originally emigrated from Scotland, at or near Edinburgh: Jonathan & his son John fought in the Revolution.

* Jonathan Mahurin was at organization meeting of town of Middletown, Rutland Co. Vermont, on May 7, 1785. - & was one of the organizers of the 1st Congregational Church there, May 26, 1783.

* Ephraim Mahurin was one of posse under Saml. Hugh, Deputy Collector of Vermont, who purchased a band of smugglers trying to take a large herd of cattle to Canada, @ Montpelier, Vermont, about 1812 or prior.

+ "a daughter of "Deacon" Miner Jr, of Middletown, Vermont, married Hiram Mahurin & moved to Oneida County, N.Y." - (Vermont Historical Gazetteer, by A.M. Hemmaway). -

Levi & David Mehurin were "among the active men of Middletown, Vt." 1820-1840; & Reuben Mehurin lived near that village in 1877. - also Merritt Mehurin.

□ John Mehurin had a son Revell, whose son Oscar Fitzalan moved to Ohio in the early days. His son Carey was father of Roger M & Ellen L. Mehurin & Ella G. Mehurin, of Washington D.C. - "Oscar F. Mehurin died, leaving one daughter & six sons."

* Seth Huron & his wife were born & raised "somewhere in New England," from whence they came to Morris County, N.J. where all their children were born: In 1787 they went to Ulster Co., New York; & from thence in 1795 to Hamilton County, Ohio:— (See Kittell's Genealogies of the First Settlers of the Passaic Valley)

The church records at Morristown, N.J. show him & his wife as members in 1758; & he was apparently a son of Ebenezer Mahurin, who was one of the founders of that church in 1742.

The family is said to have come originally from Scotland there having been three brothers of them & possibly some sisters. At the suggestion of a school teacher, the prefix "Ma" was left off the name, & Seth Huron is shown in the U.S. Census of 1790 as the head of a family in Ulster Co., N.Y., on the next line to John St. John, who was the father of the wife of Seth's son Othniel.

Phebe Huron & Bethuel Norris had no children

x Enoch Huron had no descendants; but he cared for a number of adopted ones in his home, & was for 28 yrs a Presbyterian Elder.
